10 COMMANDMENTS FOR DEALING WITH PEOPLE

1. Keep the skid chains on your tongue: always say less than you think.
2. Make promises sparingly, but keep them faithfully, no matter what the cost.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging word about someone.
4. Be interested in others. Recognize everyone as a person of importance.
5. Preserve an open mind in all debatable questions. Discuss, don't argue!
6. Say nothing of another unless it is something good.
7. Always respect the feelings of others; criticize helpfully, never spitefully.
8. Do your work, be patient, and keep a pleasant disposition.
9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks; simply live so nobody will believe them.
10. Spend some time alone each day with God.

THE LITTLE BLUE CHAIRS

The little blue chairs in a circle still stand,
But they're occupied now by another small band;
The children I taught every Lord's Day are grown,
But I think of them often, as I sit here alone.
Did I tell them of Him who died on the tree,
And who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me."
Do the ones that are left still remember my prayers,
As they sat in that circle of little blue chairs?
