Police Appreciation There is a large poster board on the back table for everyone to sign conveying our thanks and prayers for the Morehead City police Department. Feel free to write a note if you wish to do so. This card will be delivered to the police department on Tuesday along with the pizzas, and on Thursday from the church.

Shoebboxes Empty shoeboxes (a boy/girl label is inside each box) are located on the front pew piano side. When you bring your filled box back, please place it on the floor in front of the organ. Please tape to the top of the box shipping fees at $7.00 per packed box. Checks should be made payable to FFWBC, cash should be placed in an envelope and taped to the box. If you be kind enough to do this the box does not have to be opened to search for the shipping fees. Lets top last years total of 157 boxes.

CHECKERBOARD DAYS

Life is much like a checkerboard – dark and light or sun and shade. Why are cloudy days necessary? It sounds good to say that all sunny days would be ideal; but would they? When do we most appreciate sunshine? After days of overcast skies, or after a severe storm. When the sun breaks through, we respond with a sense of warmth or a feeling of cheerfulness.

And so it is in our checkerboard days of life. After a period of “storm” or testing, when the Son's presence breaks through, our spirits lift as our day brightens.
