THE GARDENER

Once there was a brier growing in a ditch and there came along a gardener with his spade. As he dug around it and lifted it up the brier said to itself, “What is he doing? Doesn't he know I am a worthless brier?”

But the gardener took it into his garden and planted it amid his flowers, while the brier said, “What a mistake he has made planting me among these beautiful roses.”

Then, the gardener came once more and made a slit in the brier with his sharp knife. He grafted it with a rose and when summer came lovely roses were blooming on that old brier.

Then the gardener said, “Your beauty is not due to what came out but to what I put in.” That is what Jesus is doing for me.
