At the Church Business Meeting on August 24th, the Birthday Gift for Jesus project was approved. Monies received will be used for the installation of security doors at the front and side of the church -similar to the door at the bathroom entranceway. The doors will lock automatically after entering but will unlock for exiting simply by pushing on the panic bar. Arrangements will be made for providing access to the church for latecomers. Prior to installation of the doors, the front steps and concrete threshold will be redesigned to eliminate the visible cracking due to settling of the building and making entrance to the building a little safer. The estimated cost of this project is approximately $7,000.00. Since the bricks and doors have already been ordered and work is likely to begin within the next 30 days or so, early donations to the BGFJ project are encouraged.

Christmas isn't really that far way – not good news to lots of us – but the Choir is pleased to announce that the choirs of FFWBC and Temple Baptist Church will combine for a special Christmas Concert to be held at Temple Baptist on December 11 and at FFWBC on December 18, both at the evening service.

SEPTEMBER SENTENCE

See the yellow school bus
Coming down the road,
Stopping here and stopping there,
Picking up its load.
See the saddened mother
Blinking back a tear,
Condemned to peace and quiet,
For another long school year.
