THE FLOWERS today are given in loving memory of our mothers, presented by Pastor Jerry and Patricia Johnson.

The VIETNAM MEMORIAL MOVING WALL is on the grounds of Glad Tidings Church on Country Club Road. The names on the wall were those that did not return home. They and the men and women who did come home were not honored as heroes, and the survivors will never forget how they were treated when arriving back on U.S. soil. Neither should we. Albeit late, honor the Vietnam fallen by visiting this memorial and then shake the hand of a returning Vietnam Vet.

FLOWERS: June's flower of the month: Pink & White Alstromeria. Deadline to order: May 31st with pickup June 4th. $10.00 each; no limit.

FUNDRAISER DINNER DEADLINE is June 11 to sign up and prepay for the June 14 Dinner. See details above.

JULY 4th CELEBRATION. The July 2nd Morning Worship service will be patriotic in nature and the Junior & Adult Choirs are teaming up for some special music performances. Immediately following the service, a picnic luncheon will be held in the Barker Building. At 2:30 PM, The Nelsons of Harkers Island will be in concert in the Sanctuary. Make your plans to enjoy this celebration of freedom and invite your friends and neighbors to hear The Nelsons. All are encouraged to wear red, white and/or blue that day.
