The flowers today are in loving memory of Mabal Watson, by Keith and Sherry Watson.

The Church Family expresses their sincerest sympathies to Anne Gillikin, wife of Mike Gillikin, who passed away suddenly on November 18th. Mike & Anne had attended our church a number of times recently.

The Salvation Army Bell Ringers had a very successful day when ringing the Red Kettle Bells on Friday, November 16th at Lowes Foods in MHC. By 2:30 PM, the kettle was full of cash. A quick call was made to the SA Office and a new kettle was brought for the remainder of the day! Way to go Sally, Beverley, Pastor & Patricia, Sherry & Keith, Sue Ellen and Cameron.

The WNAC Thanksgiving Dinner (last Sunday) donations for FWB American Ministries totaled $664.00.

Much appreciation is expressed to Sally, Sherry, Reene, Marcie, Beverley, Sue Ellen, Linda and Keith for decorating the Church for the Christmas Season, but a very special thanks goes to Keith for building the cross.

An updated Church Directory of Members is available today on the back table. Make sure you get your copy of this update as it will be very beneficial when preparing your Christmas cards. Just remember, there is no need to put addresses on the cards, just bring them and place them in the Christmas Mailbox no later than December 23rd. If you have any questions, please see Linda Simpson.
