REMEMBER

Whenever you know a desolate hour and are steeped in misery,
Remember Christ was lonely, too, in bleak Gethsemane;
Whenever you feel that all of the world has turned its back on you,
Remember that Christ knew what it was to feel abandoned, too.

Whenever you feel that your burden is greater than you can bear,
Remember He, too, heartbreakingly knew a moment of dark despair;
And remembering these things just bear in mind His victory was finally won
When He bowed His head and humbly said, "Thy will, not Mine, be done!"

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

Some of us stay at the cross,
Some of us wait at the tomb,
Quickened and raised together with Christ,
Yet lingering still in its gloom.
If the Christ Who has died had stopped at the cross
His work had been incomplete;
If the Christ Who was buried had stayed in the tomb,
He had only known defeat.
But the way of the cross never stops at the cross,
And the way of the tomb leads on
To victorious grace in the heavenly place
Where the risen Lord has gone.
