A July 4th celebration is planned following next week's Patriotic Morning Worship service. Hotdogs, Chips, Baked Beans, Beverages, Cake & Ice Cream will be provided. There is a list on the back table to sign up for anything else you might like to bring. (potato salad, macaroni salad, deviled eggs, pies, etc). Also, sign the sheet indicating how many will be with you so we know how much food we need to buy, hotdogs, etc. For more information, contact Sherry Watson.

The Pastor's address is: 6021 Hwy 301 North, Selma, NC 27576

Please turn in the list of words you made from the word FATHER this morning to Sally Jones.

Oil-Can Christians

Perhaps you have heard the story about an eccentric man with a can of oil. He couldn't bear to hear a squeak or a rub, so he would stop to put a drop of oil on every squeaky hinge, door, gate, or latch that he passed.

This is a good illustration of what our lives as Christians should be like. Since we are ambassadors for Christ, one of our tasks is to serve as “lubrication for rusty hinges” — to take the love of Christ to those who are trapped in sin and caught in the webs of pessimism and despair.

This ministry is more than a responsibility; it's a genuine privilege that should make every Christian proud of his special calling as a disciple of Jesus Christ.
