HAVE FAITH IN GOD

I've shut the door on yesterday, its sorrow and mistakes;
I've locked within its gloomy walls, past failures and heartaches.
And now I throw the key away, to seek another room;
And furnish it with hope and smiles and every Springtime bloom.
No thought shall enter this abode, that has a hint of pain;
And every malice and distrust shall never therein reign.
I've shut the door on yesterday, and thrown away the key;
Tomorrow holds no fears for me since I have found today!

AT DAY'S END

Is anybody happier because you passed this way?
Did someone remember that you spoke to him today?
The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through
Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?

Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,
That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?
Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said;
Does the man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day, or lose it? Was it well or sorely spent?
Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?
As you close your eyes in slumber, do you think that God will say,
"You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?"
