SERMONS WE SEE

I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day;

I'd rather one should walk with me than merely tell the way.

The eye's a better pupil and more willing than the ear;

Fine counsel is confusing, but example's always clear;

And the best of all the preachers are the men who live their creeds,

For to see good put in action is what everybody needs.

—Edgar A Guest

HAVE FAITH IN GOD

I've shut the door on yesterday, its sorrow and mistakes;

I've locked within its gloomy walls, past failures and heartaches.

And now I throw the key away, to seek another room;

And furnish it with hope and smiles and every Springtime bloom.

No thought shall enter this abode, that has a hint of pain;

And every malice and distrust shall never therein reign.

I've shut the door on yesterday, and thrown away the key;

Tomorrow holds no fears for me since I have found today!
