CHILDREN

Some would gather money along the path of life.
Some would gather roses and rest from earthly strife.
But I would gather children from among the thorns of sin;
I would seek a golden curl and a freckled, toothless grin.
For money cannot enter into the land of endless day,
And roses that are gathered soon will wilt along the way,
But oh, the laughing children, as I cross the sunset sea,
And the gates swing wide to heaven I can take them in with me. — Selected

Children are a gift of the Lord whether they come to us when we're young or otherwise, and whether they fit the mold we've designed or not.

Psalm 127

Five years from now your kids won't remember the night you left the dishes in the sink. But, they'll treasure forever the memory of the walk you took with them to look at the night sky. And so will you.
