The Flowers today are in honor of Marcie Clay's birthday, given by Sherry and Keith Watson.

Warm, April rain falls gently down
Upon the piles of snow,
It melts the ice, disperses it
And grass begins to show.

It trickles down the thin dry twig
To thicker branches beneath,
The vagrant mist swirls 'mid the trees
And wraps each in its sheath.

A Season of New Beginnings

April
Showers

The constant beat upon the roof
The trickle down the pane
Are evidence without a doubt,
Of sweet refreshing rain.

Through many days of test severe,
When courage almost fails
When strength is sapped, tempers frayed
The evil one assails.

*"...So the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give the showers
of rain."*

Zechariah 10:1

We can, in faith, lift up our hearts,
For Holy Spirit power,
For like the earth's refreshing rain
God sends the Blessed Shower.

The thirsty souls, ice-locked so long
Can drink and live again
The hindrances are washed away
Thank God for Heavenly rain.
